

CANONICAL ENTRY 39 / 74

Hiccups

Digestion

CANONICAL SOURCE - VERBATIM

A hiccup (hiccough) is the convulsion in the diaphragm where the esophagus enters the upper portion of the stomach.

Inhalant Therapy:

Inhalant to be made using bottle, cork, air tube and inhalant tube. Inhaling through each nostril 3 times 3 times a day, if necessary.

Recipe:

4 oz. good rye whiskey

20 minims (or drops) eucalyptus oil

5 minims rectified turpentine oil

15 minims compound benzoin tincture

10 minims pine needle oil

CANONICAL COMPANION SET

Esoteric Anatomy for Healing and Revelation

Enlightened Athletics Dietary Protocol